The holiday commemorates the Mexican army's unlikely defeat of French forces at the Battle of Puebla on May 5, 1862. While important, however, Cinco de Mayo has limited or no significance nationwide in Mexico. The date is observed in the U.S. as a celebration of Mexican heritage and pride. However, it is a common misconception that Cinco de Mayo is Mexico's Independence Day. Mexico's Independence Day is actually September 16, which is the most important national patriotic holiday in Mexico.

In the near future, all application process will be online and it will require you to have an active Email address. Mr. Duran is teaching parents how to create and use an email account. See calendar dates for Parents Workshop.
